

Alfred Russel Wallace and his legacy

21 and 22 October 2013

Organised by Professor Dianne Edwards CBE FRS, Dr George Beccaloni, Professor Steve Jones FRS, Professor Sir Ghilleen Prance FRS

DAY 1				DAY 2
SESSION 1 Chair: Dianne Edwards CBE FRS		SESSION 2 Chair: Sandy Knapp		SESSION 3 Chair: Ghilleen Prance FRS		SESSION 4 Chair: Charles Godfray CBE FRS
09.00	Welcome by Peter Cotgreave & Dianne Edwards CBE FRS
09.05	George Beccaloni Introduction and general biography	13.30	Charles Smith Early Humboldtian Influences on Alfred Russel Wallace's Scheme of Nature	09.00	James Mallet Wallace's understanding of species and speciation	13.45	Martin Rees FRS Wallace and the universe
09.30	John van Wyhe Wallace and Darwin: what really happened?	13.45	Lynne Parenti The Modern Biogeographical Legacy of Alfred Russel Wallace	09.30	Tim Birkhead FRS Wallace, Darwin and female choice	14.15	Discussion
10.00	Discussion	14.30	Discussion	10.00	Discussion	14.30	Leszek Borysiewicz FRS The Vaccination Controversy
10.30	Coffee	15.00	Tea	10.30	Coffee	15.00	Discussion
11.00	Janet Browne Natural selection a la Wallace	15.30	R I Vane-Wright Wallace and Colouration	11.00	Ted Benton Wallace and human evolution	15.15	Tea
11.15	Steve Jones FRS Wallace and the Limits to Natural Selection	15.45	Tim Caro Colouration today	11.15	Chris Stringer FRS Old and new views on human evolution	15.45	David Stack Alfred Russel Wallace, a social scientist's perspective
12.00	Discussion	16.30	Discussion	12.00	Discussion	16.10	Andrew Berry The Wallace legacy
12.30	LUNCH	17.00	CLOSE	12.30	LUNCH	16.35	Discussion
						17.00	CLOSE

Draft programme – correct as of 14 October 2013