

The Future of Scholarly Scientific Communication Part 2

5–6 May 2015

DAY 3 : Tuesday 5 May				DAY 4 : Wednesday 6 May
'Play it again Sam – the reproducibility problem'		'Breaking bad – dealing with fraud and misconduct'		'The journal article: is the end in sight?'		'Scientists or shareholders: Is profit fundamental to a sustainable model?'
Chair: Professor Alex Halliday FRS		Chair: Professor Ottoline Leyser FRS		Chair: Sir Michael Brady FRS		Chair: Sir John Skehel FRS
10.00	What is the issue and why is it important? • Professor Michele Dougherty FRS • Professor Dorothy Bishop FRS	14.00	Scope and nature of scientific fraud • James Parry (UKRIO) • Dr Virginia Barbour (Chair, COPE) • Professor David Vaux (Deputy Director, Walter and Eliza Hall Institute, Melbourne)	09.30	Is the journal article fit for purpose? • Dr Aileen Fyfe (University of St Andrews) • Steven Hall (IOP Publishing)	13.30	The economics of publishing and sustainability • Mark Thorley (NERC) • Liz Ferguson (Wiley) • Leighton Chipperfield (Society for General Microbiology)
10.30	Discussion	14.30	Floor debate	09.50	Discussion	14.00	Discussion
11.00	Break	15.30	Break	11.00	Break	14.30	Break
11.30	What can be done to improve reproducibility? • Iain Hrynaszkiewicz (Head of Data and HSS Research, Nature Publishing Group & Palgrave Macmillan) • Dr Matt Cockerill (co-founder, Rifyn) • Dr Nicole Janz (University of Cambridge)	16.00	The importance of scientific integrity to research and innovation • Sir Mark Walport FRS, Government Chief Science Adviser	11.30	What might the future look like? • Dr Mark Hahnel (Figshare) • Dr Anita de Waard (Elsevier)	15.00	The cost to the research community • Professor Stephen Curry (Imperial College London) • Professor John Wood (Association of Commonwealth Universities)
12.00	Discussion	16.20	Discussion	11.50	Discussion	15.30	Discussion
12.30	LUNCH	17.00	Drinks (City of London rooms)	12.30	LUNCH	16.00	Closing remarks
		18.30	BUFFET DINNER			16.15	CLOSE