Hybrid events

The Royal Society is an ideal venue for hybrid events. Our hybrid packages can help you reach a wider audience and facilitate collaboration between delegates from across the world, allowing them to still interact and engage with the event.

Our team can offer guidance and advice and will be happy to support you to deliver the best experience for your delegates, whether they attend in person or connect remotely.

The following packages have been designed to allow full interaction between in-person and remote participants.

Please note that these packages do not include a meeting platform. A Zoom license can be provided if required (£80) or you can discuss alternative options with the AV team.

Please note there is a minimum notice of 4 weeks to hire hybrid packages, after 4 weeks they are subject to availability.
